

Proposed Warrant Article Allowing Notices to be Posted In Limited Circumstances

Problem: Flyers and posters are considered signs under the town bylaws, similar to billboards and store signs. Event flyers, lost pet notices, and yard sale signs are not allowed.

Solution: Amend the Town Bylaws to allow such notices with specific rules.

Signs erected by a person or non-profit organization for the purpose of advertising an individual yard sale, public event, or lost pet will be called “notices”, exempt from the sign provisions of the Town Bylaws.

Notices must be constructed of resilient materials and must be erected in a way that is not dangerous to the general public.

Notices are limited in size and can only be posted for a limited time.

Notices must include the name of the sponsoring person or organization, the date of the yard sale or event, and a contact phone number or email address.

Notices may not be placed on trees or on private property without the consent of the property owner.

Notices cannot be placed on public property without written approval from the Board of Selectmen.

Notices cannot be erected in a way that limits visibility at corners.
